

South Cornelia Neighborhood Association Halloween Parade | October 29 | 3:00-5:00 pm

There's a lot happening' in and around South Cornelia on October 29. Maybe you want trick-or-treating, dazzling house and yard decorations, and to see some nifty carved pumpkins?

Get on the Halloween Map at bit.ly/SCNAHP2023.

When and Where: October 29, 2023 from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m. all over South Cornelia (and Lake Cornelia to a lesser extent).

The Marvelous Map of Festivities: See our marvelous map of festivities – treats, decorations, and carved pumpkins – at <https://southcornelia.org/halloween/>.

Tips for Zombies, Witches, Ghosts, and Trick-or-Treaters: Is your costume prepped? Are you stoked to walk around and see some festive folks? And most importantly, are you ready to score some sweet treats?!

You get to explore a diverse, spooky route with a parent/guardian and have information on how to expand the fun if you finish early.

Questions?

Maybe you want to know:

- Where do I sign up to distribute treats or show off home decorations/carved pumpkins?
- How can I be a good guide for the kids I'm responsible for?
- We finished our main parade route segment. Now what?
- How can I offer up treats my curb, driveway, or yard?
- What if my home doesn't fall along a parade route?

You'll get all that and more, plus the chance to ask other questions, on our SCNA website page here: bit.ly/SCNAHP2023

We're excited to see you on the spooky streets soon!

P.S. The only way to get the latest and greatest on the parade and sign up for treats, decorations, or carved pumpkins is right here: <https://southcornelia.org/halloween/>

P.P.S. The SCNA Halloween Parade does not replace Halloween trick-or-treating on October 31. It's a supplement to whatever you or your kiddos want to do to celebrate Halloween.
